STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER

STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER
Case No. CV 03-2509-SI

1        WHEREAS on March 14, 2006, the Court issued an Opinion and Order (“Order”)
2 resolving the parties’ cross-motions for summary judgment and directing the parties to file
3 simultaneous briefs on the appropriate form of relief within 14 days and response briefs within
4 21 days;

5        WHEREAS pursuant to the Court’s Order, the parties’ initial briefs were originally due
6 on March 28, 2006;

7        WHEREAS by Order dated March 23, 2006, the Court approved the parties’ stipulation
8 to extend the due date for their initial briefs by 30 days, to and including April 27, 2006, with a
9 corresponding extension of the due date for their response briefs to and including May 4, 2006;

10       WHEREAS by Order dated April 21, 2006, the Court approved the parties’ second
11 stipulation to extend the due date for their initial briefs by an additional 45 days, to and including
12 June 12, 2006, with a corresponding extension of the due date for their response briefs to and
13 including June 26, 2006;

14       WHEREAS the parties are continuing to negotiate in good faith regarding the appropriate
15 relief in light of the Court’s Order, and on June 8, 2006, Federal Defendants provided the other
16 parties with a draft stipulation to form the basis for continued settlement discussions;

17       WHEREAS the parties have conferred and believe that the current due date for their
18 initial briefs should be extended by an additional 30 days, to and including July 10, 2006, with a
19 corresponding extension of the due date for their response briefs to and including July 24, 2006,
20 in light of their continuing efforts to reach agreement on the appropriate form of relief, which 21 would obviate the need for further briefing and conserve judicial resources; and

22       WHEREAS as demonstrated above, good cause exists for the proposed extension;

23       THEREFORE, PURSUANT TO LOCAL RULE 6-2, THE PARTIES HEREBY 24 STIPULATE THAT:

25       The parties shall file simultaneous briefs regarding the appropriate form of relief
26 on or before July 10, 2006, and the parties’ response briefs shall be filed on or 27 before July 24, 2006.
